

Willet Builders, Inc. to Begin Capital Repairs on Williamsville Central School District

BUFFALO, NY— Willett Builders, Inc., a full service construction firm comprised of contracting, construction management, and fabrication divisions is pleased to being capital repairs work with the Williamsville Central School District.

The scope of work involves interior and exterior upgrades to seven (7) different schools within the district— including exterior restoration to historical Williamsville South High School, along with new site work upgrades to Williamsville North High School. Abatement and interior finishes will be part of the work at multiple sites throughout the district.

The firm takes pride in the modernization of Western New York schools, and this expansive project will have lasting results.

“We are honored to work with the Williamsville Central School District again,” said Willett Builders, Inc., owner Ryan Willett. “These capital repairs will beautify these buildings, and improve the facilities within the district.”

With almost 10,000 students, the Williamsville Central School District is the largest suburban school district in Western New York, encompasses 40 square miles including portions of the towns of Amherst, Clarence and Cheektowaga.
