

Willett Builders, Inc. to Begin Capital Improvements on Kenmore-Town of Tonawanda Union Free School District

BUFFALO, NY— Willett Builders, Inc. (WBI), a full service construction firm comprised of contracting, construction management, and fabrication divisions is pleased to begin work on the Kenmore-Town of Tonawanda Union Free School District (UFSD)

The scope of work involves interior upgrades & modifications to three (3) sets of bathrooms in Kenmore East High School, as well as complete remodels including abatement, flooring, HVAC, ADA plumbing modifications.

WBI has extensive experience in the public sector, involving many capital outlay and improvement projects, including Sweet Home Central District, Albion Central School District, and the Forestville Central School District, among others.

“These important enhancements for the Ken-Ton UFSD expands our public sector experience even more,” said Willett Builders, Inc., owner Ryan Willett. “This district is one of the largest in the region, so we are excited to add this project to our rapidly-growing portfolio. The Ken-Ton area is a great neighborhood within Western New York, so helping enhance their school’s facilities is an honor, and we are thrilled to see the progress over the weeks and months ahead.”
